

Spain's Weather Trend (2015-2018)

Average temperature of cities in Spain is 17 degrees. It goes below 0 during winter to high of 40+ during summer. Seville is the hottest city among these 5 cities.

16.47

Average of Value

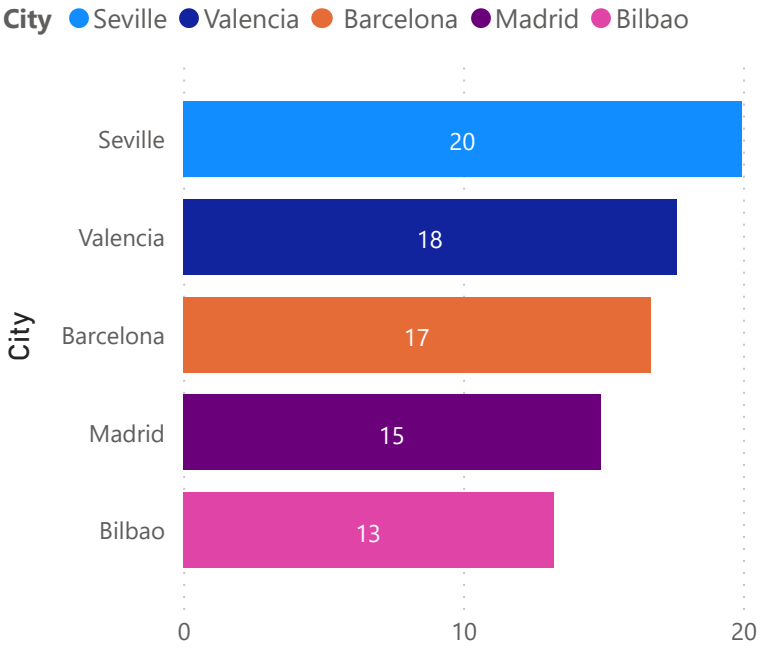

-10.91

Min of Value

42.45

Max of Value

Average Temperature of cities

Average Humidity of cities in Spain is 68 %. Bilbao among these 5 cities is the most humid city.

68.42

Average of Value

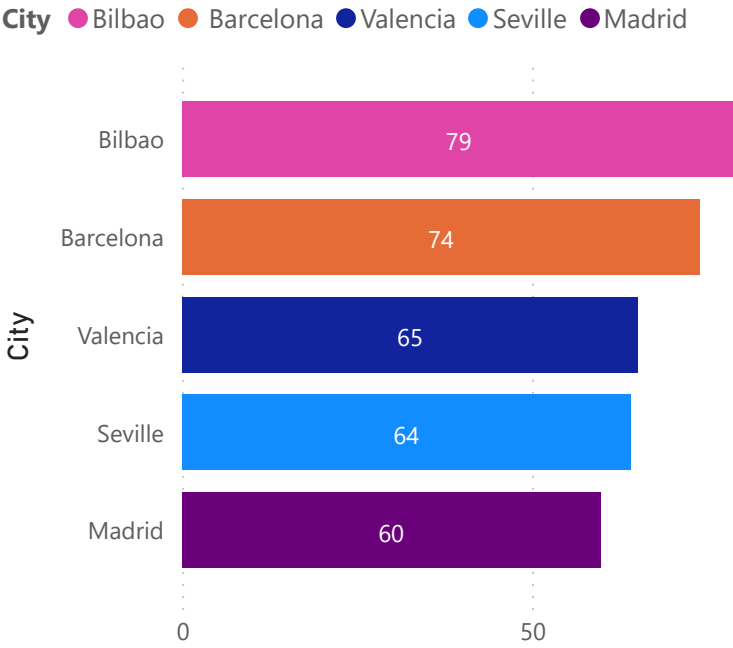

0.00

Min of Value

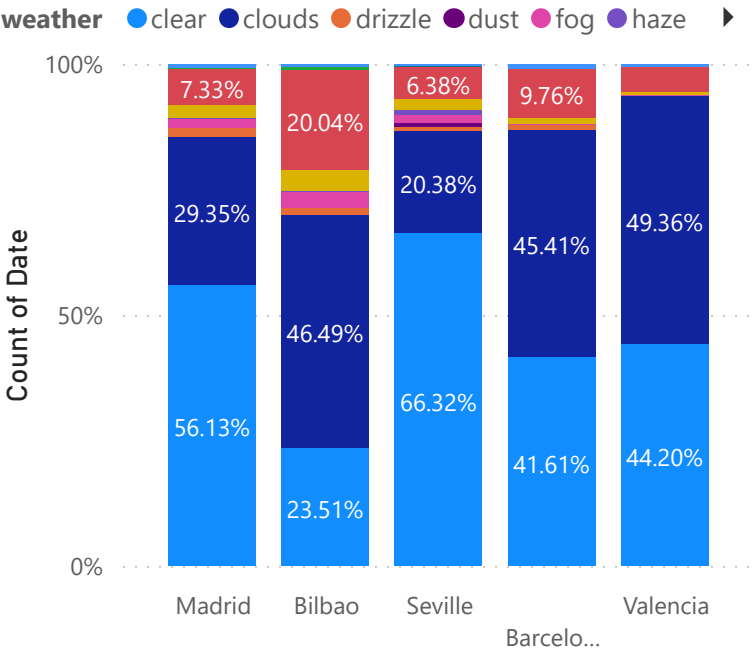

100.00

Max of Value

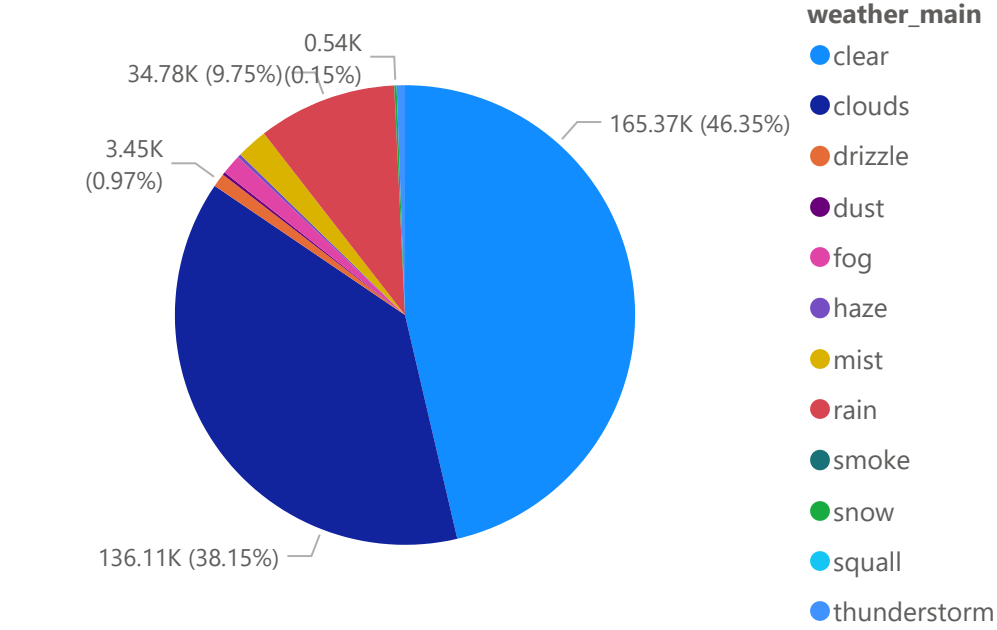

Average Humidity of cities

Weather percentage by City

Overall Weather Percentage

Overall weather conditions of Spain are clear or cloudy. Very less percentage of time cities have rain or foggy conditions. 46% of the time cities have clear weather.

Temperature of cities

On the left, we can see cities at the southern side are more hot compared to the north.

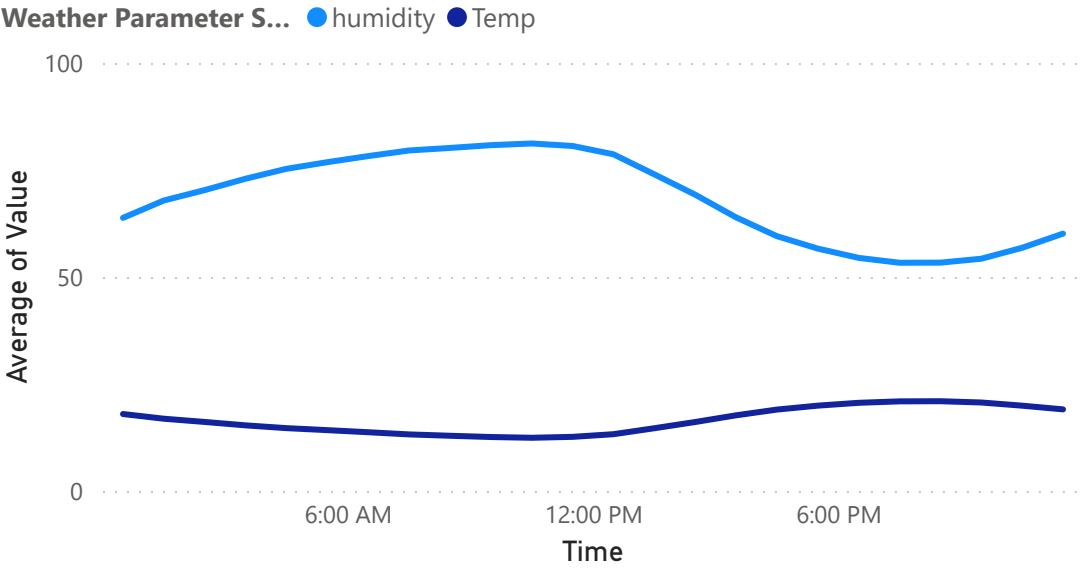

On the right side, cities at the north coastal region are more humid compared to southern cities.

Humidity of cities

Over a day, on an average we can see the trend of humidity increases, it reaches a peak at noon and then goes down at night, whereas temperature follows the opposite trend. Temperature is low at noon and increases at night.

Avg Temperature vs Humidity by Time

Trend over the year shows that temperature follows a pattern, temperature increases during Jun-Aug and reaches a peak, whereas it goes down to the lowest point during Dec-Jan month. And humidity follows the opposite trend.

Humidity vs Temperature Trend over the Year

